

I strongly object to the NAB's petition 04-160. The traffic reports I access on XM radio are up to the minute in real time. Accurate estimates of travel times between points are very useful and typically not available on broadcast radio. In addition I pay for this service and feel it to be an intrusion on my freedom of choice. I urge you to reject NAB petition 04-160.